

Potentate's Message

Greetings everyone,

I hope this finds you all doing well and at peace. It is hard to believe that Summer is winding down and Fall is approaching fast. Our normal activities "Rodeo Round Ups and Fairs" have been placed aside as we set our schedules for the following year. I still have hope that we will be allowed to meet soon and can hold our Quarterly Meeting, Ceremonial and Halloween Ball in Lewiston at the Red Lion Hotel on the 24th of October. We need to have some fun and fellowship. I will be in touch.

Please keep Membership moving forward. Let's sign up new Nobles as soon as we can and have Cold Sands set once we are allowed to meet again.

I have been in contact with Jody Jordan of Jordan World Circus for the planning of our 2021 Circus. Information will be sent out once all is finalized. Chief Rabban Jim Logan has been scheduling events for our 2021 year as we look forward to that.

Our Imperial Divan is doing their part to keep us moving in the right direction. Our Hospitals and Care Centers are continuing their marvelous work. We are so thankful to all that work so hard to make this happen.

Thank you for your support. It means so much.

Stay well,
In faith
Kirk Ross
Potentate

A Note From the Chief Rabban:

Words cannot explain how much I miss seeing you all at events, and how much I miss our events...

Hopefully, this Fall we will be able to enjoy each other's company again. As always, we will hopefully start planning some events soon... and then hope we don't have to cancel them. I don't want to imagine what a year would be like without all of our annual holiday gatherings. I am especially looking forward to our Halloween Ball and Ceremonial program.

With the cancellation of the Latah County Fair, I find myself with a little extra free time, so I am going to do the unheard of and take a short summer vacation to my hometown of Salmon, to see family and friends for a long weekend.

Even while we are growing accustomed to this "new normal" please remember to check-in on your friends and neighbors, you never know how much a friendly over the fence chat, or driveway conversation may mean to them.

Stay cool, stay safe, and we will see each other SOON!

Sincerely,
Jim Logan
Chief Rabban.

From Your Legion of Honor Commander

Hello Brother Legionnaires and Nobles:

Looks like this virus is going away as the businesses have started up again. Kids and adults are out playing baseball at the grounds at Croffoot Park next to the CDA club. It has been too hot to do anything with the cookie wagon and hot dogs at the sporting events at the park. It is a good time to check on the hot dog cart and get it ready. Who knows, we may be able to use it this fall at the baseball park. Time will tell. Then again, we will need volunteers. If we cannot rely on volunteers, guess what will happen to the LOH. It would mean selling everything and I do not want to see that happen. Membership is even falling in the Shrine Club. It was sorry to hear Jimmy Brown went the way of the Black Camel. He was a supporter of LOH. He was a great friend and brother to us all. He will be missed.

So, we have been relying on phone calls and emails to keep our organization going strong. We can still receive donations for our meat raffle. It is the only event going now for our fund raiser. Ends at the end of September so please help. Jerry Johnson and I have sold enough tickets to break even. All tickets now sold will help the LOH to pay any bills and for us to donate to other organizations. We still need you to donate. This raffle has three drawings and great percentage of a win. Help us reach the goal of reaching $1200 plus. If you do not need the meat, look what you can do by giving it as a gift to family, friends, or a family in need. Send your ticket donations to Jerry Johnson. Since the CDA club will not be operating at the fair anymore, possibility we could set up the cookie wagon at the fairgrounds selling hot dogs, cotton candy, and drinks at next year's fair. Please consider it.

There was discussion of setting up the cookie wagon at the rest area about 3 days before Thanksgiving. It is cooler and lot of highway traffic and people more interested in getting a cup of coffee and cookie. They are in a more giving mode. Would you help if it can happen? Let me know. We will then check with the Highway Dept. It is a good time to meet with the brothers and enjoy good conversation.

This virus will not last forever. I wish you good health and prosperity.

Adam Malloy Savage

Adam Malloy Savage, 37, died Wednesday, Aug. 19, 2020, in a tragic accident at his home in Lewiston. He was born May 14, 1983, in Moscow, the first child of Dave and Judy Savage. After moving to Reno, Nev., when Adam was a toddler, the family was completed with the addition of Adam's sister, Sarah. Adam went to school in Moscow, where he learned to love outdoor adventures with his family, including camping, boating and skiing. He was active in scouting and team sports as a lad and later was drawn to individual sports — especially skating, biking and snowboarding.

Adam attended Lewis-Clark State College, where he studied machine tool technology. It was there that he met the love of his life, Sheena McKiernan. They married July 28, 2007, and eventually had three sons, Treyton, Radley and Dezmond. Adam truly found his calling in fatherhood; he worked hard to provide for his family, proudly sharing in his sons' activities and keeping the boys on a straight path. As an adult, Adam retained his love for the outdoors; camping with his family and riding dirt bikes with the boys.

Adam was highly personable and never knew a stranger; his many friends are a testament to his kindness and compassion. Adam could pretty much fix or build anything he set his mind to. His Clearwater Paper shift friends will tell you that they never had to wait for the maintenance crew, Adam just fixed whatever broke. Adam wasn't just a dad, he was an amazing dad. He taught his boys so many things, and they always knew that no matter what, their dad was there for them. His passing came too soon, a devastating loss to his family and community. Adam had many people who loved him from all walks of life. He made friends easily and every friend knew that God didn't make many people like Adam.

Adam is survived by his spouse, Sheena, and sons Treyton, Radley and Dezmond, of Lewiston; his parents, Dave and Judy Savage, of Moscow; his sister, Sarah Leibbrandt, and her husband, Ian, and their three children, of Moscow; and grandparents N. Dean and Lee Etta Mulch, of Clarkston; father-in-law and mother-in-law Brett and Cathy Roy; father-in-law Kevin McKeirnan; sister-in-law MacKenzie Lockley, husband Matt and their four children; sister-in-law Abbey Roy; and brother-in-law Trystan Bradley. He was a proud member of the Masonic Fraternity and Shriners.

A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 4, at the Valley Christian Center, 3215 Echo Hills Drive in Lewiston. The family asks everyone attending the service to wear a mask to protect our family and friends. A potluck reception will follow at the Masonic Lodge, 1122 18th Ave., in Lewiston. Donations may be made at any P1FCU branch to the Adam Savage Memorial Fund to help the family with financial needs.
